

Goodwood Variations

A charity concert celebrating speed and flight at Goodwood

To take place at Goodwood House

Chichester, West Sussex PO18 0PX

We are delighted to invite you to a unique charity concert in the grand ballroom of Goodwood House on Sunday April 10th.

The black-tie concert opens with a Champagne reception at 6pm when guests are free to wander and view the magnificent art collection which includes paintings by Canaletto, Stubbs and Kneller. The concert commences at 7pm with interval canapés at 7.45pm. There will be an auction of special prizes conducted by Toovey's, with carriages at 9.15pm.

The concert will be performed by the Bernardi Music Group, led by violinist Andrew Bernardi, who will play on his priceless Stradivarius violin, dated 1696, with Voirin bow formerly owned by Yehudi Menuhin. The popular classical programme will celebrate the first night of the Shipley Arts Festival and feature baritone and composer, Roderick Williams, soloist at the 2014 'Last Night of the Proms'. The programme will include the world première of 'Goodwood Variations' composed by Roderick Williams, and feature concert pianist Maria Marchant and flautist Bruce Martin. Full details of the programme can be found at www.friendsofsussexhospices/
